

Pink SUNDAY

April 5 was a sea of pink as Mt. Zion dressed in various shades of the color that has come to symbolize women's cancer awareness. Representatives from the Pink-4-Ever Corporation, an Indianapolis-based breast cancer organization, gave remarks and shared information. The event was sponsored by Pastor Patricia Germany and the Women of Vision Ministry.

Pastor Patricia Germany, Kathy Fruto, Kelly Toliver, and Shyla Cooper

Paige and Tamika Drane

First Lady Nancy Gates

Thomas and Connie Hennig and daughter Victoria

Valencia Farrington

Pink-4-Ever reps Nadia Miller, Tasha Roper, and Marilyn Hosea. Contact Pink-4-Ever at info@pink-4-ever.org or 317-682-4944.

Minister Beverly Barnett and Grace Gordon

Mother Ruby Dodd

Armita Redfield and Candace Ervin

Evangelist Gwen Gordon, Priscilla Johnson, and Stephanie Nailon

Evangelist Lillian Highbaugh and Evangelist Johnnie Miller

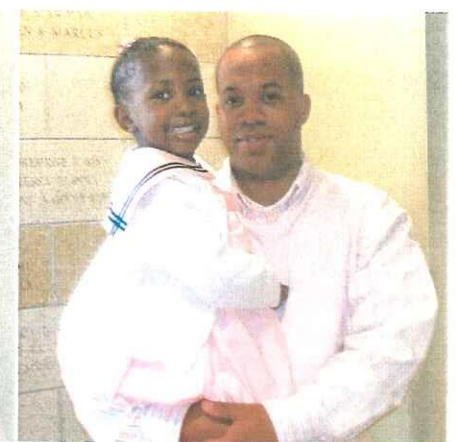

Anna Hampton and Frieda Gordon-Smith

Jenelle Floyd and Minister Sharon Mimms

Arial Bosley, Diamond Henderson, Lindsey Porter, MiKayla Shaffer, Valerie Henderson, and River Bosley

Charles Bush and daughter Iyonna

Anita Preddie, Emily Williams, and Mary Watts

Destiny Lockhart, Adenike Shaffer, Valerie J. Henderson, and Charmaine Griffin

Andre Johnson

Heather Martin, Mother Louise Bonner, Mother Leander Henderson, and Evangelist Denise Jake

Erdeice Morton and Cynthia Perry

Everlena Anderson and Kim Coleman

Front: Kameron Tardy, Michael Rogers, and Telly Rogers
Back: Deilo Brown, Leroy Brown, and Carrington Anderson

Minister Sharon Brown, Mother Pearl Russell, and Minister Cheryl Sledge

Kim Bunnell and Karen Lee